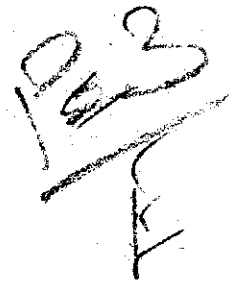
Rules and Notifications under the Bombay Hand Printers' Licensing Order 1944



File No. Hand Printers II/46

Gen. 194 e.

2,67-B

Office of the R.L.A.

A revised draft Order is sent herewith. A direction has been issued under rule 119(1) of the Defence of India Rules that a copy of the Order should be sent to each person holding a licence under the Bombay and-printers licensing Order, 1944. In view of the statement made in paragraph 1 of the I.T.C. 's Office note at page 5 ante that many licences have changed hands it is for the Civil Supplies Department to consider whether it is feasible to send a copy of the amending Order to each licensee. (cf- sub-rule 4(1B) of rule 119). It is presumed that the amendment will apply in the case of new applications and the renewal of xisting licences.

* The Bombay Hand-printers' Licensing Order, 1944, was published in the Bombay Government Gazette, dated the 24th August 1944.

Office of the R.L.A.

The draft order at p. 25 ante, is not in order.

2. The Bombay Hand-printers Licensing Order,1944. has been issued by the Government of Bombay under rule 81(2) of the Defence of India Rules and relates to cotton textiles, and essential commodity, under section 2(a)(ii) of the Essential Supplies (Temporary Powers) Ordinance, 1946. The order therefore continues in force under section 5 of the said Ordinance. It can only be amended under section 3 of the Ordinance, If the powers of the Central Government in respect thereof are delegated to the Provincial Government under section 4. In order to settle the form of the proposed order at p 25. ante, the Civil Supplies Department should furnished this office with the notification of delegation under section 4 of the Ordinance (cf. in relation to food stuffs, Government of India, Department of Food, Notification No. Py 603(2), dated 21-10-1946); or if such delegation has not been made, that Department should approach the Central Government for that purpose.
